Camp No. 575.—Under Section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act X of 1870, it is hereby declared that the land hereinunder described is needed for a public purpose, namely, for extending the Park, Mysore.

Description of land.

The land with three bungalows, a tomb, stables, cook rooms, and a tank in it, in the Laskar-mohalla, Mysore Town, bounded on the east by the public road leading to the "Lower Residency," on the west by the Wesleyan Mission compound, on the north by the Government Park, and on the south by the public road leading to Nazarbadi.

The 3rd September 1886.

No. 165.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

No. 174.—In supersession of the Dewan's Notification No. 219, dated the 3rd February 1885, and in modification of Proceedings No. 4723-31—168, dated 22nd November 1885, the following rules in regard to elephant tusks are published for general information :—

"1. Elephant tusks form an item of royalty, and therefore the tusks of all wild elephants which may be destroyed, whether on private or Government property, belong to Government, and should accordingly be handed over to the Deputy Commissioner.

"2. Licenses granted by Government under Section 7 of the Madras Act I of 1873 for the destruction of wild male elephants shall be subject to the condition that the person to whom such license is granted shall surrender to Government the tusks of the elephants destroyed.

"3. If the person who shoots an elephant wishes to keep a tusk as a trophy, he will be allowed to buy the shorter of the two tusks at 75 per cent of the market selling price of ivory. If the elephant shot has but a single tusk, and the person shooting it desires to keep it, the same will be sold to him at the full market price".
